

To the Voters of Mason County:

At Boston, Mass., on Wednesday, November 1st, W. H. Moody, Attorney General of the United States, made the following explicit statement as to President Roosevelt's desire that the Congressional nominees of the Republican party be elected on next Tuesday—

"The President has made it manifest that it is his earnest desire that the Republican nominees should be elected and that the next House of Representatives should be in harmony with him," and pointed out the results that would follow the election of a Democratic House in the following language—

"Can any sane man doubt under such circumstances that the whole power of the House of Representatives will be exerted to thwart the President in the measures which he proposed and to render the rest of his term of office entirely insignificant?"

Secretary of State Elihu Root at Utica, N. Y., on the same day, spoke to the same effect.

The sharp question, therefore, presented is, are you in favor of Roosevelt, and do you desire to help him in his great work of correcting evils that have accompanied the great prosperity of our land?

If you want to help him, you will vote for J. B. Bennett, the Republican nominee for Congress.

If you want to embarrass him, and render possible the condition pointed out by Secretary Moody as given above, you will vote for J. N. Kehoe.

SP All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock a. m.

Ray's Cough Syrup will cure any cough or money refunded. 25 cents.

There has been some quiet busting here this week in arranging details for the Congressional and Senatorial races Tuesday. The Lieutenants of both contestants have about completed the work assigned them and now await the bugle blast for the beginning of the fray.

Our last "Watch" sale was such a success we have decided to put on another lot of these watches at the same prices, and as an extra inducement, we give tickets on the elegant Diamond Ring with every dollar's worth of goods. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Mr. James Easton of Rowan county is in the city on a visit to his brother, Mr. George Easton, and other relatives. He is one of the old-time firemen of Maysville, holding life-membership in the Washington, and was present at last night's meeting. He left here in March, 1867—nearly forty years ago.

The manner in which the new made guttering in Second street has been mutilated shows a wanton disposition on the part of the perpetrators. Whoever is guilty of the dastardly act if caught will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. The matter is being looked after and the guilty may yet suffer the penalty for malicious destruction of public property.

A pitiable and forlorn-looking woman, who gave her name as Lybrook, was an object of commiseration yesterday afternoon as she aimlessly wandered up Front street, bareheaded, hair askew, thinly and illy clad and with dirty face and hands. She was not over thirty-five, and her face, though care-worn, bore traces of faded beauty. Her demeanor and talk indicated a weak mind and that she was ill was plain to be seen. It is a case that demands the immediate attention of somebody.

REMAINS MYSTERY

Death of Charles H. Stevenson at Chicago Still Unsolved

The mystery surrounding the death of Charles H. Stevenson, the lawyer whose lifeless body was found at the bottom of an elevator shaft in the rear of 96 Washington street, Chicago, nearly two weeks ago, is to remain unsolved so far as the Coroner's Jury is concerned.

The inquest was concluded yesterday and an open verdict returned.

The causes of death as given by the Coroner's physician were a broken neck and hemorrhage of the brain, due to external violence.

HISTORIC HOSTELRY

Scene of Many Shootings a Mass of Ruins at Jackson

The Arlington Hotel at Jackson, Breathitt county, which became noted during the bloody feudal troubles in that county, is a mass of ruins.

This structure, which was owned by Judge Sewell S. Taulbee, burned to the ground, entailing a loss of about $7,000.

The walls of nearly every room in the house were perforated by bullets, numerous encounters having taken place between members of the rival factions.

It was here that Tom Cockrill and Curt Jett emptied revolvers in the dining-room at each other.

Several plots, according to confessions of those interested, were laid for the assassination of James Marcum at the hotel.

Dr. E. D. Cox, the first man killed in the latter part of the Breathitt county feudal reign, was near the Arlington when assassinated, and Jim Marcum, later assassinated, lived next door at the time he was killed.

We expect before our enlarged Shoe Department is six months old that every man, woman and child in the county will know about us. We expect to sell more Shoes than any store has ever sold here before. We MUST sell more. Did you know that the more any store sells the cheaper they can afford to sell? There is a Congressman named Bennett,
Who two years ago went a-gen it;
He chipped off a block
Of Kehoe's good stock—
And some day he'll go to the Senate.

DEMOCRACY and Deficit are decidedly alliterative.

Those Democratic papers that are demanding the election of Mr. KEHOE because he voted more money out of Uncle Sam's Treasury than did Judge BENNETT, are estopped from hereafter denouncing Congress for extravagant appropriations.

If the Honourable EDELSON were gently and quietly taken around the corner grocery and carefully hung to a lamp-post—as he should be—perhaps he would inform the Head Coal Heaver that the Americans were not such "bluffers" after all.

The total gold in the United States Treasury is $877,298,238, the largest in history; which goes to prove that Mr. BRYAN was talking through his hat when he tried to make people believe that the failure of his free silver plan would drive all the gold out of the country.

In political speeches at Republican rallies at Beverly and Salem, Mass., Attorney General WILLIAM MOODY said that he was investigating "the great and powerful coal and oil combinations," and that if he found evidence of illegal combination, he would "proceed without regard to personal or political consequences."

It won't make a great deal of difference to a citizen of Maysville whether McCREARY or BECKHAM's in the Senate; but the matter of having good Public Schools is what interests every one. Vote for the School Bond Issue.

The divorce suit of the CASTELLANES is in full bloom in Paris. Mrs. CASTELLANE was one of the GOULD girls of New York, with plenty of money, a bountiful supply of egotism, and not enough sense to thread a needle. Her highest ambition, it seems, was to sell herself, body and soul, for a title; and she found her Barkis in the Honourable Count BONI DE CASTELLANE and a whole lot more—a worthless French duck whose credit wasn't good at the corner grocery for a box of sardines. But he had a title, and that's what the fool American girl wanted—and got. At the marriage in New York all snobocracy was on dress—or undress—parade, and the big pot was put in the little one, figuratively speaking. No sooner had the couple reached Paris than the Count began his demands for money—money—money. She had then an income of $700,000 a year, and the Count, generous to a fault, actually allowed her $80 a year "pin money." Since their marriage in 1895 she has paid $12,000,000 of gambling and other debts for the worthless rouse, and because her brothers refused further payments on his account—then came the deluge and divorce. And now she's coming home with a bunch of kids, a large stock of experience, and enough money left to buy another frost-bitten title. Serves her right.

When she found it amounted to $3,000,000 she repudiated the contract and the Courts awarded her dower of $1,000,000. The rest goes to the building of a home for "old men who once held positions of trust." The Executors will build at once.

WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT

Cause of Disbarment Proceedings Against Judge Beckner

In the disbarment proceedings against Judge William Beckner at Winchester, fifteen hundred pages of typewritten matter, comprising the record in the Stuart-Harmon land cases, were admitted to proof.

The defendant's counsel was allowed several days to become familiar with the record.

The Harmon suit, out of which the disbarment proceedings grew, was noted in America, South America and England, because of trials in all three countries.

Thomas G. Stuart and Archer Harmon were partners in the company, which purchased several hundred thousand acres of land in Kentucky and West Virginia.

Mrs. Florence Maybrick, the famous English prisoner, was a stockholder in the company. The suit occurred between Stuart and Harmon, which went through numerous courts, being last tried in England.

There Judge Beckner is alleged to have filed statements, alleging that adverse decisions to his client, Harmon, were secured in Kentucky by fraudulent methods.

When this was learned of in Winchester disbarment proceedings were instituted.

Mrs. C. D. Newell and Miss Mayme Key have returned from a visit to Mrs. E. H. Kenner of Flemingsburg.

Mr. C. W. Darnall of East Second street spent the day yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Owens of West Third street.

Judge Millard Chandler and son, Walter, of Mt. Olivet, spent yesterday with his aunt, Mrs. Virginia C. Williams, of Commerce street.

Mrs. J. Pickett Wood and son Filson of Salyersville, who have been visiting relatives here, are now guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stewart at Flemingsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holton of Tuckahoe left yesterday on a visit to their son, Dr. Charles Holton, at Richmond. While en route Mr. Holton stopped over at Winchester to attend the Tobacco Growers' meeting, in session at that place.

In the Covington news column of yesterday's Times-Star appears the name of Ollie Gash, aged 21, of this city, as having secured a marriage license to wed Lula Noel, aged 21, of Verona. Who is Ollie Gash, anyway?

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Mr. J. S. Moore, Director of Religious Work of the State Y. M. C. A., will speak at the Men's Meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms tomorrow at 3 p. m. Mr. Moore is an interesting speaker. Every man in the city should hear him.

The Y. M. C. A. will be headquarters for election returns Tuesday night. Special arrangements have been made with the Western Union Company, so that returns from all over the country will be received by a special messenger.

The Association invites every man of the city to its room, where reports will be read as soon as received.

There will be no charge. Election officials of city and county are requested to telephone returns as soon as counted to the Association Room. Telephone No. 205.

A vote for Bennett is a vote for Roosevelt.

HERE AT HOME.

Maysville Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed "the old Quaker Remedy" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Maysville citizen:

Henry Bertram, shoemaker, of 27 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I believe everybody in Maysville has read in the papers the testimony I gave in March, 1900, about Doan's Kidney Pills. For I have been asked again and again by residents of this town if that statement were true. For the benefit of persons who may now be suffering from forms of kidney trouble I repeat my testimony. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Co.'s Drugstore I had suffered for some time with backache and a tired feeling and having aching in and about the kidneys. Being a shoemaker I thought my trouble was caused by my work, for every time I took a cold it settled in my back, but Doan's Kidney Pills quickly rid me of the trouble, and never from that time to this have I had any cause to complain of my back or kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills perform exactly what they promise, and to be honest with you, I will say that in my opinion there is no remedy for kidney disorders equal to Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
